

4ArTS – International Encounter for Arts Therapies Students

Edinburgh 2010

4ArTS is an international gathering of seventy to eighty arts therapies students for an intensive three-day conference. The conference is run by students for students and offers a well-balanced mixture of lectures given by newly qualified or established practitioners and experiential workshops run by students. The 2010 encounter will take place the weekend 16-19 September in Edinburgh, Scotland.

If you have qualified within the past two years and over and are wishing to give a lecture presenting your work, please send us an abstract of 150-200 words submitted to alexiaqaitanou@googlemail.com.

Your abstract will be read carefully by the 4ArTS team and a selection will be invited to take part in the Edinburgh 4ArTS conference.

Submission deadline 3rd September 2010.

Applications for the experiential workshops are accepted only by students who will attend the conference.

For more information please visit www.inter4arts.org

The 4ArTS Team